

Groups Coach

Job Description

Purpose:

To ensure everyone at Canyon Ridge is connected, cared for and urged to grow by caring for Group Leaders and their members.

Description of Duties:

1. Growing to be a God First person by making my relationship with Jesus Christ a priority—being in community with Him is the foundation for all community.
2. Lead a God First Christian lifestyle—Group Leaders watching me will see an obedient servant of Jesus Christ growing in maturity.
3. Provide personalized care and development for every Group Leader by making sure they are Connected, Cared For, and Urged to Grow.
4. Assist in the identification, development and confirmation of Apprentice Group Leaders within the groups in my huddle.
5. Identify and develop an Apprentice Coach who will one day lead their own huddle.
6. Gather with other Coaches for my own care and development needs:
 - a. 2 times a year with the entire Coaching Team across all affinities, and
 - b. 3 times a year with the Coaching Team from your affinity (i.e., Couples, Men's, Women's, Singles).
7. Gather my huddle (Group Leaders and Apprentice-Leaders) for Groups Ministry Leadership events 2 times a year (fall and spring).
8. To gather my huddle (Group Leaders and Apprentice-Leaders) for huddle meetings 2 times a year.

Time Requirements: A Coach is available to their group leaders by being flexible with their time, both on weekdays and weekends. Typically, 1-2 hours a week is sufficient to carry out the responsibilities in caring for their leaders.
